Negociation with France.

CONCLUDED.

(No. 70.)

Extract from a Dipatch from Lord Whitworth to Lord Hawksbury, dated May 12, 1803.

The Messenger, Sylvester; as I mentioned in my last dispatch returned on the 9th at 12 o'clock; and I wrote to M. de Talleyrand informing him of it, and desiring him to name an hour when I might wait upon him in order to communicate to him the purport of my instructions. To this letter I received no answer that evening or the following morning. Anxious to execute my orders, and to lose no time, I inclosed the project furnished me, by your Lordship, accompanied by an official note, and a private letter to M. de Talleyrand, and sent it to the foreign department, by Mr. Mandeville, with directions to deliver it to M. de Talleyrand, and in his absence, to the Chief du Bureau.—He delivered it accordingly to M. Durand, who promised to give it to his chief as soon as he came in, which he expected, he said, shortly. At half past four, having waited till that time in vain, I went myself to M. de Talleyrand. I was told that the family was in the country, and that they did not know when the minister would be in town. Half an hour after I had returned home the packet which Mr. Mandeville had given into the hands of M. Durand, was brought to me. I believe, by a servant with a verbal message that as M. de Talleyrand was in the country, it would be necessary that I should send for him there.

In order to defeat as much has depended upon me, their intention of gaining time, I wrote again to M. de Talleyrand, recapitulating the steps I had taken since the return of the messengers; and desired Mr. Talbot, the secretary of the Embassy to take it himself at nine o'clock at night, when I thought M. de Talleyrand would be home at his house in Meudon. He was, however not at home. Mr. Talbot was told that he was at St. Cloud, where he had been all day, and that he would not be back till very late. He therefore left my private letter, with his name and returned with the packet. It was my intention to have sent it on the following morning to the Bureau, with orders that it should be left there; at one o'clock in the morning, I received a note from M. de Talleyrand, accounting for his note not having been able to answer me sooner; and appointing me at 12 o'clock at the Bureau des Relations Exterures. I went at the appointed time. He began by apologizing for having so long postponed the interview, which he attributed to his having been the whole day with the First Consul. We then entered upon business. I told him, that limited as I was by your Lordship's instructions, he could not be surprized at my impatience to acquit myself of my duty. I explained to him the nature of your Lordships observations, on the proposal of the 4th, and that it was considered as on the one hand impracticable, from the refusal of the Emperor of Russia, to take charge of Malta, and on the other as being wholy inadequate to his Majesty's just pretentions.

I gave him the note in which this was expressed, and the project, on which alone a satisfactory arrangement could be framed. He read them with apparent attention, and without any remarks, and after some time he asked me if I felt myself authorised, by my instructions, to conclude with him a convention, framed on the basis of my project, or indeed extending that basis, since the first article of it would be the perpetual possession of Malta to England in return for a consideration.

I told him I most certainly was not authorised to enter into any engagement of such a nature which would make the negociation one of exchange instead of a demand for satisfaction and security. To this he replied that the satisfaction and security which we required was Malta, and that this we obtained; that the first consul could not accede to what he considered, and what must be considered by the public and by Europe, as the effect of coercion; but if it were possible to make the draught palatable, did I think myself justifiable in refusing to do so? I told him, that acting in strict compliance with my instructions, I could have no need of justification, and that I came to him with the determination of abiding strictly by them. He contended, that by communicating a project, I merely stated on what grounds we would be willing to conclude; and that a counter project, founded on the basis of giving us what we required, could not be refused a fair discussion. To this I urged the resolution of his Majesty's ministers, to avoid every thing which could protract the negociation. That I saw no other means of acting up to those views than by making my stand on the project at all events. I urged him repeatedly to explain himself more fully on the nature of the demand which he should make for Malta, but he would not explain himself. After much contest, it was agreed that the proposal should be submitted to me in the course of a few hours, and that I should determine on the line of conduct I might feel myself justified in pursuing, either to sign it, to send home, or to leave Paris.

The remainder of the day passed without receiving any communication from M. de Talleyrand.—Upon this I determined to demand my passports, by an official Note, which I sent this morning by Mr. Mandeville in order that I might leave Paris in the evening.

At two, I renewed my demand of passports, and was told I should have them immediately. They arrived at five o'clock and I propose setting out as soon as the carriages are ready.

First inclosure referred to in No. 70.

The undersigned, his Britannic majesty's ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to the French republic, having transmitted to his court the proposal which was made to him by the minister for foreign affairs on the 3d instant, has just received orders to transmit to his excellency the accompanying project of a convention, founded on the only basis which his majesty conceives, under the existing circumstances, to be susceptible of a definitive and amicable arrangement. The minister for foreign affairs will not fail to observe to what degree his majesty has endeavored to conciliate the security of his interests with the dignity of the First Consul. The undersigned flatters himself, that the First Consul, doing justice to these sentiments, will adopt in concert with his majesty an expedient so suitable for restoring permanent tranquility to both nations and to all Europe.

(Signed) WHITWORTH.

Second inclosure referred to in No. 70.

PROJECT.

1. The French government shall engage to make no opposition to the cession of the island of Lampedosa to his majesty by the King of the two Sicilies.

2. In consequence of the present state of the island of Lampedosa, his majesty shall remain in possession of the island of Malta until such arrangements shall be made by him, as may enable his majesty to occupy Lampedosa as a naval station; after which period the island of Malta shall be given up to the inhabitants, and acknowledged as an independent state.

3. The territories of the Batavian Republic shall be evacuated by the French forces within one month after the conclusion of a convention founded on the principles of the Project.

4. The king of Etruria, and the Italian and Ligurian republics, shall be acknowledged by his majesty.

5. Switzerland shall be evacuated by the French forces.

6. A suitable territorial provision shall be assigned to the king of Sardinia in Italy.

SECRET ARTICLE.

His majesty shall not be required by the French government to evacuate the island of Malta until after the expiration of ten years.

Articles 4, 5 and 6, may be entirely omitted, or must be all inserted.

Third inclosure referred to in No. 70.

Paris, May 10, 1803.

Sir,

In order not to lose an instant of so precious a time, I have the honor to convey to you the project which I have received from my court with the note which accompanies it. I shall have the honor of calling on your excellency at any hour you may appoint, in consequence of the request I made yesterday. But in the mean while, you will be in the possession of the contents of my instructions. I hope to God they may be of a nature to insure the tranquility of both countries and of Europe.

(Signed) WHITWORTH.

To His Excellency M. de Talleyrand, &c.

Fourth inclosure referred to in No. 70.

Paris, May 20, 1803.

Sir,

Having yesterday morning received some important instructions to communicate to you, I wrote to you that evening to ask your excellency at what hour I could have the honor to acquit myself of this duty. This letter has not been answered. At two o'clock in the afternoon, I sent Mr. Mandeville, attached to the embassy, to the office of foreign affairs, in order to deliver to your excellency, or in your absence to your First Secretary, a sealed packet, containing the papers which I had to communicate to you, and I added a second letter to your excellency. Mr. Mandeville delivered this packet into the hands of M. Durand, who assured him that it should be communicated to you without delay. At half past four, not having received any answer to my letters, I went to the foreign office, and there I learnt that you were in the country, and that it was not known when you would return to town.

Half an hour afterwards having returned home, the papers which my Secretary had taken and delivered to M. Durand were brought to me, with a message that I must send and deliver them to the minister in the country.

In this state of things, since your excellency does not give me an oppertunity of making you this communication, I have no other alternative than to give it in charge to Mr. Talbot, Secretary to the Embassy. He will have the honor to deliver to you the project of a convention, which I hope will serve as a basis to an amicable arrangement between our two governments.

I have only to add, that the term of my stay in Paris is limited, and I must set out on my journey for England on Thursday morning, if the negociation is not favorably terminated before that time.

I request you, Sir, to accept the assurance of my high consideration.

(Signed) WHITWORTH.

Fifth inclosure referred to in No. 70.

It being impossible for the undersigned to delay any longer executing the orders of his court he finds himself obliged to request the minister for foreign affairs to have the goodness to expedite the necessary passports for his return to England.

He requests his excellency to accept the assurance of his high consideration.

(Signed) WHITWORTH.

Paris, 12th May, 1803.

(No. 71.)

Is an extract of a dispatch from Sir George Rumbold, Bart. to Lord Hawkesbury, dated March 20, 1803, stating the circumstances attending the insertion in the Hamburgh papers of the First Consuls' official article.

(No. 72,)

Is an extract of a dispatch from Mr. Hill to Lord Hawksbury, dated Copenhagen. April 2, 1803, stating that the French minister had desired that the article which had appeared in the Hamburg newspapers might be inserted in those printed at Altona, but in consequence of the refusal of the magistrats of that place, an application was made to the Court of Copenhagen. The answer of the Danish government is not stated.

SALEM, July 28.

Arrived ship Recovery, capt. Dana, 46 days from the Isle Cananei, on the coast of Brazil. July 23d, lat. 34, 40, long. 61, fell in with a wreck floating even with the water: sent an officer in a boat to examine it: proved to have been a brig of between 160 and 180 tons; bowsprit only standing; decks gone; a small fig'd man's head; carved work on the stern, in imitation of barrels, and figures of women holding ears of corn, &c. stern painted black; staunchions of a lead colour; figures and carved work painted white; could not discover any name. From the size of the barnicles; suppose she must have been several weeks a wreck, and probably been visited as such before. July 26, lat. 41, 43, long. 66, blowing fresh, passed and spoke a sch'r with lumber on deck, 3 days out from Newburyport, bound to Trinidad.

July 29.

From Rotterdam,

Captain George Nichols of the ship Active sailed from Rotterdam the 9th, of June, and yesterday arrived here and has favored us with a file of "The Merchant," a paper printed at Rotterdam, to the 8th of June; from which we have extracted a number of articles, as below.

Captain N. informs, that the ships employed by the French to carry troops to Louisiana, had been given up and the troops stationed at Helvoet, Goree and the Brill, the French having taken possession of the fortifications at those places: That two French and several Dutch frigates were lying at Helvoetsluys, but the latter were dismantled: —That two British frigates were cruising off that port to watch the motions of the French, and to intercept the Dutch, merchant ships bound in: That at the declaration of war, only one British vessel was lying at Rotterdam, but several packets arrived a few days after, and were taken possession of by the French: That it was said that Mr. Liston, the British Ambassador, was to depart for England on the 10th of June; and that the Dutch, with the greatest reluctance, saw that they must once more be plunged into war.

Petersburgh, May 12.

A contra-order for our troops, not to hold themselves in readiness to march, has been suddenly given, accompanied with these expressive words, That it was occasioned by a change of circumstances.—It is not known if this unexpected step has a reference to our late preparations against Sweden, or in the equipments going forward in our ports.

Berlin, May 28.

Monday next, his Excellency the Count van Haugwitz is expected to return hither, when it is thought we shall be made acquainted with the measures which will be taken by our Court, in case the French should enter the North of Germany, since it is known that these measures were to be concerted and settled at Magdeburgh, in conjunction with another German Prince. It is also extremely probable, that though Hanover should be resigned to its fate, Prussia will, however, cover the remainder of the North of Germany, particularly the Weser & the Elbe, and the cities of Hamburg and Bremen. There is also a talk of a cordon under gen. Blucher.

Hanover, May 27.

A successful experiment has been made to inundate the environs of Hamelen.—The most spirited exertions are making to increase our forces. The force destined to the frontiers, exclusive of the cavalry, consists of 3 trains of artillery of the line and two of riding artillery, and 24 battalions of infantry. An advantageous position will be taken, for the purpose of stopping the progress of the French. All the battalions of infantry are augmented from 500 to 900 men.

Hague, June 4.

IMPORTANT!

The Bishoprick of Osnaburg has surrendered to the French by capitulation. On their approach, the Hanoverian garrison evacuated the country. The French, in three columns, are in full march for Hanover. They have a park of 50 pieces of artillery.

Mr. Liston has demanded his passports. He will leave a charge des affaires.

Rotterdam, June 7.

The number of French troops who entered Quakenburg, in the Bishoprick of Osnaburg, amounted to 6000.

The territory of Bremen is provided with barriers, in which are painted NEUTRALITY.

The latter end of May a deputation left Hanover, charged with a mission of importance, and supposed to be destined for the French quarters.

BOSTON, July 29.

From Halifax.

By capt. Huxford we received the papers of that place to the 16th inst. A proclamation had been issued for continuing the usual intercourse between Nova-Scotia and the United States. The Cambrian frigate had arrived there from the West Indies. On her outward passage she met with a French national brig, bound home, with citizen Jerome Bonaparte on board, war had not then commenced.—The sloop of war Lilly had arrived from New York.—The sloop of war Pheasant, Capt. Carew, from which the French corvette Berceau escaped, was ordered to England.

NEW YORK, August 2.

In the brig Morning Star, arrived at this port yesterday from Curracoa, came passenger, capt. Spalding, of the pilot-boat schooner Revenge of Norfolk, whose mate and part of the crew had run off with his vessel, whilst he and two of his men went ashore in the boat, at Lostack, a port on the Main.

An embargo, which had been laid on all vessels at Curracoa, was taken off the day on which the Morning Star sailed.

Captain Henry was chased by two French privateers near the Pomona passage, and threw all his letters (about 300) overboard.

Arrived, brig Morning Star, Henry, Curracoa; schr. Eliza, Webb, Richmond; sloop Washington. Spencer, Milford, Del.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 5.

Communication. —— OUR Theatre opened on Monday evening last, with the Comedy of "Sighs or the Daughter," and, to the credit of Mrs. West's company, the performance exceeded our most sanguine expectations. It is a pleasing reflection to the mind to behold, that while our little city has more than an equal share with its neighbors, in commerce, that it is equally flourishing in the refinement and cultivation of good manners, and would only require a little more exertion on the part of the police to make it the admiration of the passing stranger—while many of our cities are under the apprehension of contagious disorders, we are enjoying, through Divine Providence, the blessings of health; this consideration ought to excite the exertions of the whole mass of the inhabitants, and more particularly the police, to guard against all causes that might create diseases — and what can be a greater preventive, particularly to the lower class of citizens, than an evening's amusement, which draws the mind from a grovling spirit of indolence, relaxes it from its daily toils, and prepares it to return to thole toils with more vigilence and animation.

To mention any one of the company in particular, would be doing an injustice to the rest, as they appeared to vie with each other in their different characters, which were well appropriated, and were not wanting in exertion and ability, to give satisfaction to the audience.

HUMANITAS.

It is the wish of the Editor of the National Intelligencer to engage an individual well qualified to report the Debates of Congress. Immediate application, with the terms that will be agreeable, is requested,

The Editors of papers who publish Debates from the National Intelligencer are requested to insert this advertisement in their papers a few times.

A Liverpool Price Current of the 4th June, with which a respectable commercial friend has favoured the Editor of the Mercantile Advertizer, contains the following remarks:

"Although the export of Sugar this spring has been very limitted; and as we cannot calculate on receiving any considerable supplies to answer the increasing demand, these prices (36 to 55s. per cwt.) will be maintained. Havanna Sugars scarce and much wanted.

"The stock of Coffee are very moderate, not exceeding 1000 casks: and as the crops have failed in Jamaica and some other islands, we expect this article will maintain high prices.

"Cocoa scarce, but not much wanted.

"Pimento and Logwood in demand.

"Good clean West India Cottons are scarce, and meet a ready sale; and although the stock of Brazil, and Upland Cotton now at market is considerable, we do not think West India Cottons of good qualities are likely to decline. Fine Sea Islands continue very heavy. The immense importation of Uplands this week has reduced the price to 13 ½d, but is not expected to be much lower.

"Chochineal and Indigo scarce, and much in demand.

"Good Virginia Tobacco meets with a ready sale: Maryland Tobacco is very scarce, and much enquired for.

"Superfine Flour 35 to 37s. per barrel."

A VULGAR ERROR,

"An idle man is no mans enemy but his own."

Were it possible that a man could live in solitude, his idleness, in which name I include all other vices, would indeed be of no consequence to any person but himself.

Were it possible for any man to come into the world without father or mother; he might be as idle as he pleased, and be nobody's enemy but his own.

Were a man to pass through the world without friends or connections, he might in a certain degree, do hurt to no one but himself.

If there were no such thing in the world as example, a man might be as foolish, as idle, as wicked as he pleased, and be nobody's enemy but his own.

Yet the idle man, who, by a vulgar error is supposed to be nobody's enemy but his own, is, in fact, the enemy of all relatives, and the enemy of all who, seeing him, may follow his example. He is something more than a blank in the world, for he teaches others to neglect their duty as he has done; and it is false humanity to pity him, because no man deliberately does so much mischief as an idle man.

We find that some idle men, who are reputed to be nobody's enemy but their own have wives and children who are starving for want, while he wastes his time in idleness, and his substance in riotous living.

The idle man who is vicious, adds to the prevalence of bad example, and takes a part from the encouragement virtue ought to meet with—he allows his affairs to be deranged, by neglect, and while the absurd pity of the world states him to be nobody's enemy but his own, it is found that he is the enemy of a numerous list of indulgent creditors.

An idle man is not one that does nothing, but one who does nothing that is good. The absence of labour is idleness, but not inactivity, for the mind of man is restless, and when not well engaged will be ill employed.

Much lowness of mind is connected with idleness, for the idle man will, in his distresses, thankfully accept of a dinner or a guinea, although accompanied by contempt, and the unfeeling show of generosity. He gives pain to every man of consideration who sees him—and is—an enemy to every quarter where his connection extends, or his example is seen.

One of Duane's left-handed compliments to the administration.

"Our most sanguine expectations could not embrace the idea of so immense a cession as Louisiana. We did not take into view the influence which the prospect of a war would necessarily have in favor of our negociation and in producing a disposition to cede to us countries which the French could not occupy, but which their adversary would for the double purpose of annoying them and their allies, & holding another rod over us, take the first opportunity of occupying."

THE BACHELOR's SOLILOQUY,

OR,

A new Puzzle in praise of Women.*

Happy a man may pass his life
While free'd from matrimonial chains,
When he is govern'd by a wife,
He's sure to suffer for his pains.

What tongue is able to delare,
The failings which in women dwell,
The worth that falls to woman's share,
Can scarce be call'd perceptible.

In all the female race appear,
Hypocrisy, deceit and pride,
Truth—darling of a heart sincere,
In woman never can reside.

They're always studying to employ,
Their time in vanity and prate,
Their leisure hours in social joy,
To spend is what all women hate.

Destruction take the men I say,
Who make of women their delight,
Those who contempt to women pay,
Keep prudence always in their sight.

* When read for the praise of women, the first and third lines, then the second and fourth must be read.

MATRIMONY.

IT is much to be regretted but indisputably certain, that many persons of both sexes are deterred from entering into the married state, by Secret Infirmities, which delicacy forbids them to disclose; and there are not a few who being already married, are rendered miserable for want of those tender pledges of mutual love, without which happiness in this state is at least very precarious. It has been ascertained beyond a doubt that those circumstances are occasioned by general or partial relaxation or weakness in either sex, and it is equally certain that the genuine AROMATIC LOZENGES OF STEEL are the best, if not the only remedy ever discovered for this species of debility. When taken into the stomach, they immediately dissolve and diffuse themselves like a vapor through every pore, producing effects at once delightful, salutary and permanent. When the spark of life begins to grow dim, the circulation languid, and the faculties paralysed, these Lozenges are found to give tone to the nerves, exhilarate the animal spirits, invigorate the body, and re-animate the whole man. When aversion to exercise, loss or depravity of appetite, and pallid countenance, indicate approaching consumption, the delicate female will be preserved and restored to health and society by the benign influence of this medicine. When the delusions of imagination, or the force of bad example, have tempted unguarded youth into the dangerous labyrinth of secret sensuality, debilitated his body, and impaired his understanding, these Lozenges will protect him from lingering disease, the infirmities of premature old age, and a wretched dissolution amidst the agonizing reflections of conscious guilt.—When the sons and darghters of dissipation have brought on themselves debility, relaxation, imbecility, and a long train of nervous affections, manifested by impaired memory, anxiety, agitation, tremours, languor, paleness, emaciation, indigestion, apathy in men; hysterics, spasms, loss of appetite, irregularity, weakness, abortion, pains in the back, chest, &c. in women; these lozenges will restore health and vigor to the debilitated frame, and cheerfulness and animation to the mind.

Price One Dollar per packet.

Particular directions for their use are sealed up with each, but as the great benefit to be derived from them can only be secured by having them genuine, the public are requested to observe that the signature of Messrs. Thos. Stokes and Co. are affixed to each packet, without which mark of authenticity, they are not genuine.

Dr. Atkinson's genuine Essence of Mustard.

Rheumatism in every stage, instantly submits to its penetrating powers, which has succeeded in curing the most desperate cases of rheumatism, gout, lumbago, sciatica, numbness, pally and complaints of the stomach, after various medicines have proved ineffectual. It is prepared in pills, and also in a fluid state. The pills are particularly serviceable in flatulences and indigestion, and by their salutary operation, promote perspiration, and gradually undermine the most obstinate rheumatism; and, at the same time, invigorate the debilitated constitution. The fluid essence is a remarkable active embrocation, necessarily used with the pills, and as generally excites a tingling sensation; it removes the causes of pain, by bringing on a circulation in the parts affected; by this means, frozen limbs, the severest sprains and bruises, old strains and relaxations, are generally cured by a few applications The genuine is distinguished from counterfeits, by the signature of Thomas Stokes and Co. being affixed to each bottle; without which mark of authenticity, none are genuine.

The genuine Scotch Itch Ointment.

The only medicine that cures this disagreeable disease, by one application, so many thousands having experienced its efficacy; it is unnecessary to add any more arguments in its favor, but to caution the public that the name Thomas Stokes and Co. is affixed to each box, without this mark of authenticity, none are genuine.

Dr. Bardwell's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the Eyes; speedily removes inflammations, dimness, itchings, and films; it never fails to cure those maladies which frequently succeed the measles, small-pox, and fever; and is an unparalleled strengthener of a weak sight.

Dr. Hunter's genuine Antibillious Pills.

An agreeable and certain preventive of the predisposition to inflammatory and malignant fever, which prevails at particular seasons of the year. The rapid and increasing demand from every part of the United States, and the West India islands, is the best evidence of their superior excellence.

CHAMBAUD'S
Antasthmatic Lozenges.

A radical cure for coughs, colds, asthmas and consumptions, difficulty of breathing, &c. &c.

Mr. CHAMBAUD, the sole proprietor of this medicine, has the satisfaction to announce that they have been the means of relieving many persons in a most precarious state of health. In common colds this medicine produces so salutary a perspiration that they generally are eradicated in a few hours. Coughing, being prolonged by that convulsive symptom termed the tickling in the throat, it shortens its duration by promoting sleep and strengthening the constitution. Pulmonary complaints, affecting the breast and lungs; those affected with them experience an almost immediate relief.—Asthmas and confined consumptions have repeatedly been eradicated by them. Infants in the hooping-cough, and women during pregnancy, may take them without the least fear of danger, and with the greatest expectation of relief, nor can it be administered at an improper season.

Annodyne Essence, for all kinds of Head Achs.

THE renowned virtues of the Annodyne essence, is now so generally known, that it is no presumption in the Proprietor, to say, that Head Achs, arising from whatever cause, or however violent, instantly submit to its penetrating powers. This invaluable Annodyne, has frequently succeeded after the best advice, and every other remedy had failed; by its salutary operation, it insensibly promotes circulation and perspiration, and thereby prevents the return of the most obstinate periodical head achs.

Specific Drops for Deafness,

IS recommended as an inevitable Medicine, for the speedy relief of this most afflicting complaint, and is proved by long and extensive experience, to be absolutely unparalleled; for many years have these drops been used in Europe with amazing success. Those who are unacquainted with the great relief afforded by this invaluable Medicine, are earnestly recommended to try it. Few are the cases in which it has not been of great service, and has very often perfected a complete cure.

HOOPING COUGH.
To Parents who have Children afflicted with HOOPING COUGH.

THIS Medicine is of the greatest importance, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time, entirely removes the most cruel disorder to which children are liable. The Lozenges are so perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small, that no difficulty arises in taking it.

☞ Further particulars of the Medicines abovementioned, will be hereafter inserted.

SPRING PHYSIC.

DR. HUNTER'e Anti-Billious Pills are unquestionably proved by ample experience to be the most effectual remedy, at the same time the most innocent, pleasant, and convenient medicine for the cure of scurvy, scorbutic eruptions, leprosy, and other disorders originating from a corruptive state of the blood. The remarkable cure of Mr. Elliston, of Albany, who had been twelve years tormented with a most distressing scorbutic complaint, as also that of Thomas Johnson, a labouring man, in the service of Mr. Van Rensselaer, who was afflicted with a most horrid leprosy, must have convinced every one who has read the particulars of these cases, besides which, a variety of proofs of their efficacy, authenticated by persons of character and respectability are open to the examination of every inquirer. These must naturally be supposed to have their due weight, and supercede the necessity of any further comment from the Proprietor, yet, he presumes to assert, that the real merits of this vegetable preparation will, on a fair trial, plead more forcible its own recommendation than any thing which can be said of it,

Where also may be had,

Atkinson's Worm destroying Lozenges.—These Lozenges not only destroy worms where they exist, but effectually prevent their return. Those families who have followed Dr. Atkinson's advice, and used them in the Spring and Fall among their children, as their common physic, have now the happiness to find those children, which appeared sickly and consumptive, in the bloom of health, being entirely delivered from those dreadful vermin.

Sparta, Mount Pleasant,
March 27, 1803.

We hereby certify, that our daughter, about 4 years of age, has been very unwell and in a bad state of health for these last two years. We always suspected that she had worms, and had given her several worm medicines, without any good effect, so that we despaired raising her till of late. Hearing of some surprising cures being performed by Atkinson's worm destroying lozenges, we purchased a packet of them, and administered them according to the directions. The first dose brought away only one worm, and with it a quantity of slimy, offensive matter; the second brought away four monstrous thick worms nearly half a yard in length; and the third dose, a large quantity of a slimy, offensive matter. The vomiting and purging, with which she was frequently troubled have ceased—her apperite has become regular, and has ever since enjoyed a perfect state of health, for which we are entirely indebted to this excellent medicine.

DR. BARDWELL'S
Re-animating Solar Tincture, or Pabulum of Life,

Of the cure of Consumption and Asthma, Disorders in the Stomach and Bowels, Convulsions, Cholic and Disentery.

Cautious in investigation, and attentive enquiry into the nature and laws of the animal economy, having long confirmed an opinion in the mind of the inventor, that all the maladies abovementioned, derive their origin from the same cause, indirect debility, or consequent weakness, the analogy of their source, by a natural inference suggested the idea of their removal by the same means; the result was the discovery of the Re-animating Solar Tincture, which after having been employed in thousands of instances, with the most unexampled and astonishing success, has obtained the warmest approbation of charcters of the first respectability, both in and out of the profession; the proprietors can confidently recommend, as one of the most certain, efficacious, and pleasant remedies ever discovered by man or offered to the world.

Price 1 dollar, and 1 dollar 50 cents per bottle. The large bottle contains nearly two of the small. Copious Directions for their use are sealed up with each bottle.

Specific Drops for Deafness.

FOR many years have these drops been used with amazing success, in DEAFNESS & HARDNESS of HEARING. Those who are unacquainted with the great relief afforded by this valuable medicine, are earnestly recommened to a trial. Few are the cases in which it has not been of great service, and very often perfected a complete cure.

Copious directions for the use of the Specific Drops for Deafness are sealed up with each bottle. Price one dollar.

☞ These Bitters being now generally used in taverns and public places, and universally acknowledged by all who have tried their effects, to be far superior to the compositions formerly imposed in imitation thereof; the proprietor hath reduced the price to those who purchase largely above fifty per cent. Directions will be pasted on the Bottles, and which will be also sealed, in order to detect counterfeits and upstart pretenders, who will all tell you, they make the genuine Stoughton's Bitters; and in order to impose their trash on the public, they sometimes copy a part of the true advertisement and directions.
